

Checklist

Printable to-do list for International Healthcare

- Check specific restrictions concerning international healthcare and medical regulations
- Research mandatory vaccinations in your destination country
- Save the names of your current medical prescription
- Close outstanding medical appointments in your origin country
- Find General Practitioner (GP) abroad in advance near your new location